

The fish traps still work but are rarely used today. There are stories that our people would see ghost(s) when they would be carrying their fish home late at night.

Photo: Remains of ancient native fish trap at Roseau Rapids photographed in 1900.
(Photo from: Dominion City - Facts, Fiction and Hyperbole, by James M. Wadell, 1970)