

The river was once so rich with sturgeon spawning “that you Could get across without touching the bottom” (late Stan Nelson)

There is an opportunity to plan to restock this spawning ground and to help sturgeon back and forth on the river.